FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Vertex's VAT Practice Leader Chris Walsh to Present at The Chicago Tax Club's 54th Annual Fall Seminar

BERWYN, Pa., November 13, 2007 - Vertex Inc., the leading provider of tax technology solutions, has been selected to present as a thought leader on value-added taxes at The Chicago Tax Club's 54th Annual Fall Seminar, being held November 14-15 at the Donald E. Stephens Convention Center in Rosemont, Ill. Chris Walsh, Director of International Taxes at Vertex, will deliver two presentations, "The Basics of VAT," held Wednesday, November 14 from 2 p.m. to 3:15 p.m., and "The Changing Face of VAT," being held the same day from 3:45 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Walsh's first seminar will provide a foundation of knowledge for U.S. tax professionals who are taking on greater responsibility related to the international tax requirements of their business. In "The Basics of VAT" seminar, Walsh will define VAT, identify how it works and illustrate how it is applied. Walsh's second presentation, "The Changing Face of VAT," will build upon this foundation and explore new trends emerging in VAT compliance and enforcement worldwide.

The Chicago Tax Club aims to educate and inform tax professionals from all industries on tax developments and planning strategies at the federal, state, local and international levels. The Club's annual Fall Seminar offers members the opportunity to participate in sessions with nationally recognized speakers, authors and tax technicians to address a variety of current tax issues and help enhance their professional skills. In addition, attendees have access to an industry forum for networking and sharing experiences with other tax professionals. The Chicago Tax Club's seminars qualify participants for continuing professional education (CPE) credits; attendees to Vertex's presentations at the 54th Annual Fall Seminar can earn 1.5 CPE credit hours per session.
