Vertex Joins Oracle's Partner Program

As an Oracle partner, Vertex will leverage Oracle technologies to drive customer success.

King of Prussia, PA – June 10, 2025 - Vertex Inc. (NASDAQ:VERX), a leading global provider of indirect tax solutions, today announced it has joined Oracle's enhanced partner program. For more than 40 years, Oracle has been working closely with partners to help drive joint customer success and business momentum. By joining Oracle's partner program, Vertex has the opportunity to establish Oracle-related knowledge in delivering global tax automation solutions and services for various industries, including retail, manufacturing and technology.

"Participating in Oracle's enhanced partner program reinforces our commitment to delivering purpose-built tax solutions that integrate with Oracle Fusion Cloud Applications Suite," said Marc A. Duclos, Global Senior Director of Strategic Partnerships at Vertex.. "This collaboration enables us to better meet the evolving needs of businesses across industries through innovation, automation, and shared expertise."

Vertex offers certified integrations and specialized tax expertise, therefore this enhanced collaboration with Oracle enables tax automation to be embedded within existing ERP workflows— helping address risk, improve accuracy and support global compliance.

As Oracle and Vertex align more closely, organizations gain scalable, future-ready solutions designed to adapt to regulatory complexity and business growth. Vertex is Oracle-certified, Oracle-embedded and Oracle-aligned — and remains dedicated to supporting the modernization of ERP systems.

By joining Oracle's enhanced partner program, Vertex has opportunities to achieve Oracle Expertise, which can help validate its skills and capabilities around specific products, services, industries, and geographies. Partners achieve Oracle Expertise by meeting a series of qualifiers that underscore the potential impact to customer success. Vertex looks forward to taking advantage of these exclusive benefits to help further differentiate its offerings in the marketplace.
